Subject: Economic Development in New York State and Beyond - An Evening with Kenneth Adams and Steve Polivy

Kenneth:

I hope that you are well. I just wanted to touch base with you about our upcoming event on November 18th from 6 to 8:30 pm. It will be entitled, "Economic Development in New York State and Beyond – An Evening with Kenneth Adams, President and Chief Executive Officer of Empire State Development and Steve Polivy, Chair, Economic Development and Incentives Practice, Akerman LLP."

Question 1:

Which ESD programs would you like to cover as we would like to draft that into the invitation?

- Start-Up, CFA, Tax Incentives, Loans and Grants? This is entirely up to you. You will have about 30 minutes to speak. Steve will cover EB-5 financing.

Question 2:

Also, would you have any objection to having members of the Press present? I would like to invite my friend, Connie Ford, who is a business editor at the Wall Street Journal as well as Laura Kusisto, who is a reporter at the Wall Street Journal. The other contact that would like to invite is Amir Korangy of the Real Deal. Let me know if you have any concerns.

Anyway, I am very excited to be putting this together with you. Have a great weekend. Thanks.

Hi Kenneth:

Any chance that we can get you here after the Election? I realize that you will be totally booked until then. Thanks and have a nice weekend.

Subject: November Event

Dear Kenneth:

I hope that you are well. I am settling into my new firm and enjoying it very much. I am planning a co-hosted event with the Asian Bar Association of New York that will focus on economic development in November. I would love if you could speak at this event about some of ESD/DED business programs (initial thoughts: CFA, tax credit programs, and real estate pipeline). My managing partner, Steve Polivy, will speak about EB-5 financing. The format will likely be an early evening panel with reception to follow. We would schedule this event around your availability. Thank you.
